This puzzle marks the 70th anniversary of the first appearance of what was to become the 25ac,27to.

Ten asterisked clues lack a definition; these each belong to one of two thematic groupings, from which three members from one group of four together portrayed the members of the remaining group of six. Solvers should submit with their entry their solution for the one of the four who portrayed none of the six.

Clues are presented in alphabetical order of their solutions.
