

June 2021 Imogen Max Liversidge

This puzzle marks a number of related anniversaries which are relevant to present times and given substance in solutions to the asterisked clues, which each lack a definition. The overarching theme is given by an appropriate pairing (4,3,8) that appears in anagram form in the highlighted cells, and which should be submitted with your entry.

Clues are presented in alphabetical order of their solutions.

Grid by
Max Liversidge

MON	TUES	WED	THURS	FRI	SAT	SUN
	1 2aw Cancel banns – bachelor to elope with soprano before middle of next month (5)	2 19to,18ac Serenade perhaps winning heart of Robin's girl (4)	3 25to* Taking seconds of iced champagne, finish under table (5)	4 25up,7to-2* Priest dons vestment at start of rite (6)	5 25ba,24to-3* Two helpings of crisps horribly salty (7)	6 12to,9ba,8aw* Daughter, not a virgin, rejected (7)
7 13to,10ba Propose finally pretty heartlessly in wood (5)	8 3d What might give someone on themed night out new appearance up top? (5)	9 3aw-4 A foreign title is woman's right (4)	10 22ba-3,21aw* Four men finally marry (5)	11 6d Like one about to get plastered, sample alcohol at hydro (5)	12 20up Display new presents Scots hide rarely (5)	13 1ac,3aw-3* Left to take food with a certain woman (7)
14 1d* Addition eventually to series of family members? (5)	15 20ac-3 Here one goes mad, missing opening of ceremony (3)	16 21up Absolute refusal to accept one back, which may provoke tears (5)	17 15ba,14to* Pretty devious to conceal love (7)	18 18ba,17aw-2 Here the theme may end, Romeo returning single (4)	19 4ba Call for thematic token (4)	20 23to Loud shout from Rector, one ready for a row (4)
21 4d-4* Difficulty to get holiday at last (4)	22 18up First off, percussion and bass leading a dance (5)	23 5ac,7to-2* Minister is keeping pounds back (6)	24 5to* Shirt comes in two sizes (5)	25 24to One's sharp to secure tea, say, almost abandoned by the others? (5)	26 24up People securing what thematic cake comes in? (5)	27 11ba Like Tim, Des avoids fate (4)
28 16d,22to-2 Hurrying a bit to become one in Scotland (3)	29	30	Day 13 1ac,3aw-3 (7)
			Drawing by Frank Paul

June 2021 Imogen

Max Liversidge

This puzzle marks a number of related anniversaries which are relevant to present times and given substance in solutions to the asterisked clues, which each lack a definition. The overarching theme is given by an appropriate pairing (4,3,8) that appears in anagram form in the highlighted cells, and which should be submitted with your entry.

Clues are presented in alphabetical order of their solutions.

Grid by
Max Liversidge

