

July 2021 Vlad Gin

Grid by Gin

This puzzle marks a 58th and 70th anniversary of important dates in the life of one of a famous group (two of whose colleagues have been clued without definition). His epithet is unclued, but should appear highlighted in the completed grid. His previously hidden name (3) and 'occupation' (4) should also then be revealed, using new letters that must first be inserted into some of the hollowed-out dark squares on levels five and three respectively. In total, seven of these hollowed-out squares each need to be filled with a letter that (together with adjacent letters) will form a run of (at least) three consecutive letters of the alphabet. Anagrams of these inserted letters will then supply the name (level five) and occupation (level three) that must be submitted with your solution.

Clues are presented in alphabetical order of their solutions.
