

June 'Extra' 2011 Ogre

Except for 1 away, which is normally clued and has 6 letters, all solutions have five letters and all clues are DLM.

"Definition and Letter-mixture - D.L.M.: Each clue includes both definition - one word or more - and a mixture of letters of required words beginning with the beginning, or ending with the end of a word in the clue."

The subject, who died in 1971, is honoured by the extra letter outside the box. St Patrick is honoured appropriately in the manner of 13.

MON	TUES	WED	THURS	FRI	SAT	SUN
		1 32Aw  The crowd in the gods are sick of ham acting	2 5D  The police arrested Silas, a thief (a.k.a.) Fingers	3 10D  A poor fish is a silly chap	4 6D  The confines of a timber-yard	5 7D  Corrosion has done a nasty to part of a battery
6 34Ac  Maturing TESSAs are something worth having nowadays	7 28Aw  The Indian manager is often a luminary from previous Test Series	8 17D  Geordies carouse while their wives lie brooding in bed	9 16D  Saints are pure: their souls are clean and innocent	10 27Aw  I can do nothing to stop bee stings while tending my hives	11 23Aw  My elbow jars when I hammer a nail. Do I need to see the doctor?	12 35Ac  When Holmes was elsewhere Dr Watson often made a mistake
13 3D  The Authorities used to be rigorous at Exchange Control	14 9Ac  My goodness! A sodger laddie played the pipes awfy loudly	15 12D  Varnish can easily be applied to furniture with an oil rag	16 33Aw  They heartily disliked it (ie. they loathed it)	17 30Ac  Fiery Welshman seeks autograph of Sir Dickie Attenborough	18 29Ac  A great river rises where the sun dips over the mountains	19 13D  see preamble
20 19Aw  The gangsters high-tail it out of town	21 8D  Capital accumulation has a lasting effect on personal wealth	22 21Ac  A horse-thief has stolen tack from the old loose box	23 14D  Reagan's Attorney General - why does he seem to have been forgotten?	24 20Ac  A bird in my hand is worth two in your bush	25 25Ac  The learned man's papers were all over the place	26 22Ac  The bench of magistrates said quickly that it agreed
27 22Aw  "There's a decoy ship," whispered bosun to AB Queeg on his first voyage	28 2AWw  The slates sag greatest towards the middle of the roof	29 2Ac  The stones of Callinish speak again many a year syne	30 4Aw  The holy man has dusty feet from his desert pilgrimage	24Aw  A lifeboat is a vessel which rescues seafarers in distress	15Ac  I've a scab under my lip from the breathing apparatus	11D  Modesty has merit only in its innocence
31Aw  A fast film will usually arrest a starling in mid-flight	31Ac  A wise shopkeeper has strong security at his store	26Ac  The wind rips through the house and turns my ears to ice	18Aw  A strong chemical was needed to clean the smelly ox for the show	1Aw  Fungal body formed by unknown quantities on well-dug loam (6)		June 'Extra' 2011

BBC CiNA World Championship Calendar Puzzles 2011

June Extra Ogre

A very posh embroidered bookmark given by Cash's of Coventry will be awarded to a successful solver, drawn from the hat.

These competitions are free and open to all.

Please return by midnight of June 30th to:

Name .....

Address .....

.....

.....

.....

Tel No .....

Email .....

Calendar Puzzle
PO Box 4823
Coventry
CV6 9FN

Or scan and email to Sirius

sirius@calendarpuzzles.co.uk

Entrants to the world championship have donated £9.99 to BBC CiNA

