Curmudgeon

This puzzle marks a 100th anniversary of a death.

Letters in the yellow cells give the name of a hero who died 100 years ago, the scene of his death, and two places connected with his greatest achievement. Letters in the purple cells will anagram to his means of transport, a word from his family motto, and one of his qualities, which should be submitted with your entry.

Clues are presented in alphabetical order of their solutions.
