Grid by etc

This puzzle marks the 50th anniversary of the death of X; solutions to nine clues are the names of X's works or are related to them in some way. All other clues contain the name of other works of X. Solvers should include with their entry the surname of X (6).

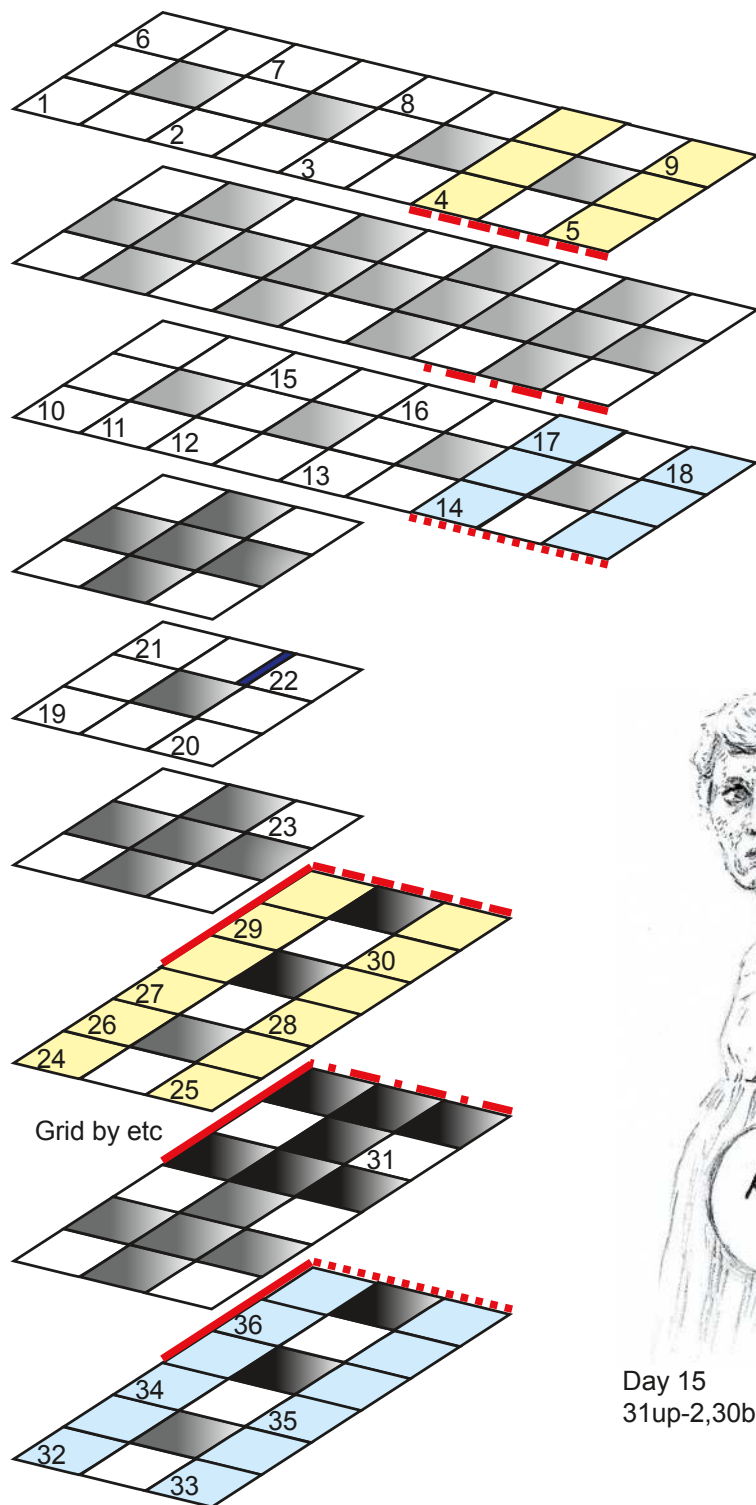

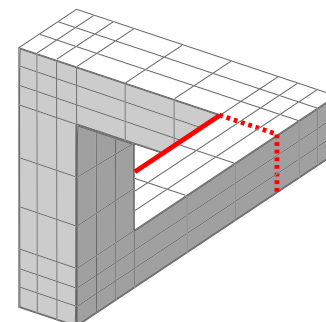

The grid represents a Tribar or Penrose Triangle as depicted below. This is an impossible object. It has been cut along the dotted line. The dotted edges on the top three levels join the matching edges on the bottom three levels.

Clues are presented in alphabetical order of their solutions.
