The puzzle marks 100 years since the beginning of a much-loved but above all practical institution. The purpose of its foundation can be traced to a tragic event of $74\frac{1}{4}$ years earlier.

Thematic items in the grid are clued by wordplay only. You will find an earlier name for one of those items, highly significant for the institution's prehistory, jumbled in the blue-shaded cells. The green-shaded cells offer an anagram of the location of the tragic event. You must include these unjumbled forms with your entry.

Clues are presented in alphabetical order of their solutions.
